Activity 5

Differences between Warning, Prohibition and Mandatory Signs Part 2.

a) Look at the following Fire action image and identify which one is a prohibition, a warning or a mandatory sign. Match them.

Fire Action
	Sound the alarm.
	Leave building through the nearest available exit.
	Report to the meeting point
	Don't return to the building until authorised to do so Try not to touch anything because the surface could still be hot

b) Draw an example that you can find in your community, and color it according to the type of sign.

Activity 6

“Must” or “Must not”

Write sentences with “must” or “must not” and the phrases from the word bank.

We use “must” to talk about rules.
For the negative form, we say “must not”.

Example: (affirmative) : You must be careful when using scissors.

(negative): You must not drive a car without a license.

cheat on tests eat in class listen to your teachers bring your school material shout in class do your homework fight wear a school uniform

Example: You must wash your teeth after each meal.
 You must not eat too many sweets.
