Activity 5

Hood in the Woods

Read the story. Circle the characters with color red, and the settings with color blue. If you want to listen to it, you can visit the link!

Little Red Riding Hood lived in a wood with her mother. One day Little Red Riding Hood went to visit her granny. She had a nice cake in her basket.

On her way Little Red Riding Hood met a wolf. "Hello!" said the wolf. "Where are you going?" "I'm going to see my grandmother. She lives in a house behind those trees".

"Granny, what big eyes you have!" "All the better to see you with!" said the wolf.

"Granny, what big ears you have!" "All the better to hear you with!" said the wolf.

"Granny, what a big nose you have!" "All the better to smell you with!" said the wolf.

"Granny, what big teeth you have!" "All the better to eat you with!" shouted the wolf.

A woodcutter was in the wood. He heard a loud scream and ran to the house.

The woodcutter hit the wolf over the head. The wolf opened his mouth wide and shouted and Granny jumped out.

The wolf ran away and Little Red Riding Hood never saw the wolf again..

The Golden Touch

Once there was a king named Midas who loved his money more than anything in the world. One day he did a good deed for a Satyr, and he was then granted a wish. Even though Midas was a very wealthy king, he asked that whatever he touched would turn into gold. Midas claimed that this was a fantastic wish. Excited about his newly-earned powers, Midas started touching all kinds of things, turning each item into pure gold. But soon, Midas became hungry. As he picked up a piece of food, he found he couldn't eat it. It had turned to gold in his hand. Hungry, Midas groaned, "I'll starve! Maybe this was not such an excellent wish after all!" Watching him sad, Midas' beloved daughter threw her arms around him to comfort him, and she, too, turned to gold. "The golden touch is no blessing," Midas cried and begged the Satyr to reverse it and to take away those powers. That's all there is.

“THE MAGIC WORDS”

 Once upon a time there was a boy named Daniel.	 He lived with his family: mom, dad, a little brother and a sister
 One day Daniel went for a walk into a forest, alone and without telling his mom or dad.
 Soon he got lost. He was scared and alone.	 Suddenly, he found a wizard next to a door
 The wizard said to Daniel “This is a magic door, it can take you home, but you have to say the magic words. You know them, they are the magic kind words.”
 Please and thank you! Of course: “please and thank you”, the magic words that open any door.
 “Please - said Daniel-, I want this door to open. Thank you!”	 And puff!, the door opened!
 And Daniel was back in his house with his family again. He learned that “please and thank you” are magic words that open any door. THE END.

Activity 13

Match the Story

Match the pictures with the parts of the story.

1) Daniel said the magic words: "please and thank you."
