Comparing Mexico and Italy

Read and complete the next activity.

Mexico: Located in North America, Mexico is a country located beneath the United States of America. It is a Spanish-speaking nation. The weather in Mexico is mostly sunny. The most common food are tacos, tamales, chiles en nogada, cabrito, pozole, menudo. The most special celebrations in Mexico are Revolution Day, Mother's Day, Independence Day, Day of the Dead, and Christmas.

Day of the Dead, or “Día de los Muertos”, is a traditional Mexican holiday celebrated on November 2nd. On this day, it is believed that the souls of the dead return to visit their living family members. Many people celebrate this day by visiting the graves of deceased loved ones and setting up altars with their favorite foods, drink, and photos. La Catrina makeup has come to symbolize “Día de los Muertos” or The Day of the Dead in Mexico.

Italy: The country of Italy has a mostly Mediterranean climate characterized by hot, dry summers and cold, rainy winters. The most popular dishes in Italy are: Pizza, risotto, lasagne, among others. Italians celebrate Mardi Gras/Carnevale just as Americans celebrate Halloween: they dress up. Everybody dresses up, and children love it. There is no “trick or treat” and horror theme, however. The focus is on having fun dressing as something or somebody else. Celebrations and traditions are Pasqua (Easter), and Natale (Christmas), among many others.

November is inaugurated by two important religious feasts in Italy: All Saints Day and All Souls Day, on November 1st and 2nd, respectively. These are very important days in the Catholic tradition. The true essence of this feast includes visiting cemeteries and remembering the early departed, some leave out a lamp, a bucket of water and a little bread, so that the dead can find their way home and, once there, eat and drink.

Facts of Independence Day in Mexico and USA

Complete the chart with the required information.

The United States of America (USA).

The United States celebrate their Declaration of Independence from Britain on July 4th. People usually celebrate this date with fireworks, parades, barbecues, carnivals, and ceremonies. As decorations many people display the American flag outside their homes or buildings and they use banners in blue white and red. The traditional food during this celebration are hot dogs, burgers, potato salad, corn on the cob, and barbecue. People usually play rock and roll, blues and some marches to celebrate this day. Independence Day is a public holiday. It is a day off for the general population, and schools and most businesses are closed.

Mexico

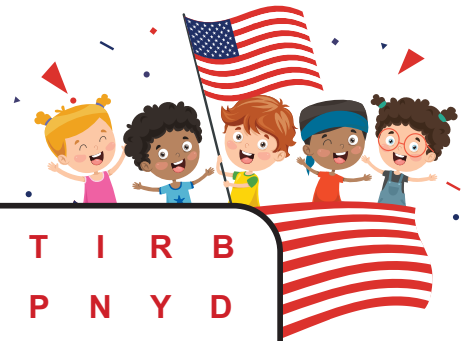

Mexican Independence Day is celebrated on the night of September 15th with “El Grito de Independencia” the people gather in town plazas and celebrate with fireworks, traditional food and snacks. On September 16th the celebration continues with a military parade, this is a two-day celebration. Mexicans decorate with Mexican flags, colorful lights, sombreros, balloons and streamers in green, white and red. In Mexico the food is very important, during this celebration it is common to eat pozole, tostadas, flautas, enchiladas, chilaquiles and tamales. People usually play mariachi, ranchera, huasteca, banda, norteña, jarocho and marimba music. Independence Day is a public holiday in Mexico too. It is also a day off for the general population, and schools and some businesses are closed.

He is a doctor

Activity 11

Read About Occupations

A. Read about an occupation and answer.

My name is Marian, and I am a flight attendant. Providing the passengers what they need, and making sure they are comfortable are my main duties.

My job is exciting; I visit many countries every year and never know where I'll be the next week. Of course it's also tiring, and I can't spend the weekends or holidays with my family but it's worth it.

I wanted to be a flight attendant since I was a little girl, so I did everything I was advised to, in order to get the job I always wanted. I think it's very important to prepare yourself to do what you dream on, and if you are really concerned on learning and you take it seriously, you will probably get what you want.

1. What does Marian do for a living?

2. What are Marian's main duties at work?

3. According to her, what's the advantage of being a flight attendant?

4. And what is the disadvantage?

5. What does she think it is necessary to get what you want?

6. Do you agree with her? Why (not)?
